

Why we chose London

The following Greater London Boroughs were identified for the cohort of low income and high poverty rates category. Overall, the most concentrated areas of high poverty in 2020, are listed in order of high to low poverty rate: Hackney; Barking & Dagenham; Tower Hamlets; Newham; Enfield; Lewisham; Haringey; Southwark; Greenwich; and Islington.

Notably, Tower Hamlets, Newham, Hackney, Islington, and Haringey, were identified in a 2014 census with the highest poverty rates in Greater London. With Islington identified in the category of lowest income in Greater London for the past 15 years [citation please].

The below maps, Figures D1-2, illustrates the poverty rate estimates of above 30% in Greater London, after housing costs for areas known as middle-layer super output areas (MSOAs) in a 2014 report.
